Rip Them Off Free

Rip Them Off is a spin-off from the full-blown game Strip Them Naked. In this game, find out if you have what it takes to ride the wave all the way to the very top. You play as Sir Vince, CEO of a top-notch company. Your company has just released its very first product, a wonder tool for laundry. Sir Vince leaves the office as soon as it's created, but suddenly things go wrong. The breakthrough of the invention is ruined by the demo tape — and at the worst possible time! The Press Blasts Sir Vince's invention as a worthless waste of time and money. A minor setback! But wait a second. Their preliminary tests indicate that the invention is more than a worthless toy! Sir Vince, a good CEO, could make a fortune. But not without the Press Blasts' help. It's up to you to get to the bottom of this great scandal. MinimalismRip Them Off's take on the classic game Scrabble has a retro art style for its 10-20 word matches, and retains the spirit of Scrabble by using the original rules. Gameplay Rip Them Off is about as simple as a game can be, with just two buttons to press at a time. Match on one of five tiles: Words are always selected from the match board (the words appear one tile away), and are from a pool of 30 for 10 minutes, which can be altered using the "Advanced Options". Directional swipe: Each player starts with five points, and to score a point, players swipe in one of the four directions (up, down, left or right) to pick up letters. 10 of these are used by the computer in 15 minutes to build up points to win the game. The rest of the time, they are used to fill up the board. Each match is winnable if the total score reaches 21, with bonus points being awarded at the top, bottom, middle or left of the board. Re-matchAfter a game, the top words remaining on the board are displayed. These can be replayed and re-arranged, and any new words from the pool appear as word is dragged to the correct spot. Should the player drag a tile from a word that has already been played, it is instead added to the word it's on, with the tile being picked up and flipped over to show the new word. For example, if a player drops "eye" on the "city" tile, "city" is slid to the "eye" tile, making the word "eyes" appear. If the tile "r" is placed on the "new" tile "r" then "rabbit" appears. If a "s" is placed on a "fish" tile, the word "fish" appears, with the "s" flipped over to look like a fish. Top tipsFrom the start, I set the game at a difficulty level where the computer starts by selecting all the words in the board. This is intended to ensure that if a player loses early on, they still have a chance to win later. This also means there's a decent amount of frustration for a player who's losing, even if it's only one game out of several. The "Options" menu provides some tools for players

! Rip Them Off! is a comedy stage show based on the popular British television sketch show "The Fast Show". It follows the sketches of the Fast Show's executive producer Ben Elton. The show features a series of many actor sketches, which are comedic one-on-one vignettes that vary from 10 to 30 minutes in length. The show premiered on 7 May 2010 at the Treehouse Theatre in London, Ontario, Canada. It was originally presented as a traveling show that performed at colleges across North America, attracting both sold-out crowds and critical acclaim. The show has since appeared in other parts of Canada and in other countries, and was aired in the United Kingdom on BBC Two and channel 4 in the United Kingdom. The show is still running in Britain and is available for streaming for free on YouTube. Synopsis The Fast Show featured vignettes from four characters: Stuart - Played by Russell Kane, Stuart is a student obsessed with popular culture; he is an obsessive fan of anything from music to TV, and sometimes likes to use such obsessions to trick people. He is the classic Fast Show character within the show, always using his knowledge to use the show to his advantage. Nevertheless, he feels he is a genius. Colin - Played by Stephen Mangan, Colin is Stuart's (a member of) best friend, and speaks in an obnoxious, pestering and powerful voice. He plays the role of a character who doesn't care what you say, but does say it anyway and can do things that will make you feel really bad, and often use this to his advantage. Colin likes to be seen as the number one. Libby - Played by Sacha Baron Cohen, Libby is Stuart's half-sister, and has a very strong nervous habit of touching everything in her hand, giving the impression that she is not comfortable with things she sees. She has emotional intensity, but also lacks judgment and wisdom. Her TV and media obsessions affect her greatly, often leading her into trouble. Also, she has a tendency to use tiny umbrellas that she keeps under her arm or floating in the air. Vicar - Played by Mark Rylance, Vicar is the Rev. Skip Herridge (ecclesiastical equivalent to Mr. Gummer from the show The Fast Show), but is also believed to be the only original member of the Reverend's fanclub. He is a good friend of the Reverend, but refuses to give him calls, and
